Memories of a happy day

Are we going to get this darned gazebo up in time?

Mary Hunter, Mike Davis and Roger Hinton (right) are beginning to have their doubts.

Answer to last month's quiz question: The Aberdeen Steak House first appeared in the Brighton telephone directory in 1971.

Yea! it's up!

Volunteer 'Tidy Up Team' member Gill Wales salutes a grand achievement.

If you would like to join Gill in the constant battle to keep the three local squares cleaner than the Council can keep them, contact Suzanne Hinton (details in panel). You can help on an occasional basis or join Gill regularly as she battles with the litter.

By the time Gill had finished litter picking on Sunday, she had three bags full – not of wool, but of rubbish ... from Clarence Square alone. Part of Gill's voluntary task is to report to the Council the amount that her team has collected during any one stint.

The balloon says RSAS is 40

Wot! no website address on the patchwork banner?

Ok, so everything is ready. Where are our guests?

The games were all hired at very low cost from the voluntary organisation, Brighton Resources Centre in Tilbury Place. Many thanks to Ani Watson for fetching and carrying all the equipment in her capacious car.

If they can see us from up there, do you think they will come and have fun with us?

Cake, anyone?

Julie Wright tempts all the guests with her homemade Ginger and Lemon cake and delicious Chocolate Brownies

You be snakes, I'll be ladders

Mike Davies and Mary Hunter (right) challenge a friend

A huge thanks to Simon Bannister of Brighton and Hove City Council who loaned the large Council-owned gazebo – delivering it to the site with the best of environmental credentials ... by bike.

And thanks to Brighton and Hove French Circle for the loan of the small green gazebo.

'Thank you' from an old hand

Roger Hinton, founder committee member and former Chair of the Society, re-caps the Society's 40-year history – mercifully in not much more than 40 seconds.

The day was a great success. If you can pass this Newsletter on to a neighbour and perhaps persuade them to join, that would be wonderful. Special offer for them: membership from September 2019 until February 2021 for just one year's subscription of £5.00 (single).
